Numb. 10934.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 25, to Saturday April 29, 1769.

St. James's, April 29.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Hon. Henry Seymour and Robert Jones, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Huntingdon, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, and to join with the Reſt of your dutiful and loyal Subjects in expreſſing our Deteſtation of the Attempts that have been lately made in the Capital and other Parts of your Dominions, to diſturb the Tranquillity of the mildeſt Government that ever exiſted in this or any other Kingdom.

We view with an Eye of Abhorrence the Arts of thoſe wicked Incendiaries, who, under the Colour of redreſſing Grievances that do not exiſt, diſplay the Banner of Diſcontent and Faction; and mean the Subverſion of that happy Conſtitution which they pretend to ſupport in its utmoſt Purity.

We have the Satisfaction to perceive, that the weak Attempts that have been made to extend the Flame of Sedition beyond the Limits of the Capital, have met with very little Succeſs. We ſee, with the utmoſt Pleaſure, the Sentiments of many great and opulent Counties and Cities that have already expreſſed their Duty and Loyalty: And we doubt not, but that their Example will be followed by all your Majeſty's Subjects, who are not miſled by deſigning Men, or infatuated by a falſe Notion, that Liberty is in Danger, at a Time when all thinking People are convinced, that it never had ſo firm an Eſtabliſhment as under your Majeſty's juſt and gracious Government.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and glorious; or, to ſum up the Whole, that it may continue ſuch as it has hitherto been, (for we cannot form a more extenſive Wiſh) will be our ardent Prayer to the lateſt Hour of our Lives.

The following Addreſs of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Queenſberry and Dover: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, met at Dumfries the 19th of April, 1769.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, animated with thoſe Sentiments of Attachment and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government, which have ever diſtinguiſhed the Members of this National Church.

It is with the utmoſt Abhorrence we hear of thoſe riotous and tumultuous Proceedings, by which the Tranquility of your Majeſty's Reign hath been diſturbed even in the Seat of your Government; and we embrace this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty, that the ſame Sentiments of Abhorrence are univerſally entertained by the People under our Care.

That Almighty God may long preſerve your Majeſty to reign over us in Happineſs and Tranquility; that he may continue to your Subjects the ſame Felicity they have already experienced under your auſpicious Government; and inſpire them more and more with the Diſpoſition to fear God, and honour the King; and that the Bleſſings of our invaluable Conſtitution may continue ſecure to theſe Realms, under a long Succeſſion of Princes of your Royal Race, is the ſincere and fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries.

Signed in our Name and Preſence, by James Moody, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors, of the County of Berwick, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Marchmont: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors, of the County of Berwick.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors, of the County of Berwick, prompted by our Duty and Affection for the beſt of Kings, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to expreſs our utter Abhorrence of the late riotous and ſeditious Proceedings, begun and fomented by a Set of ſelf-intereſted, evil-deſigning Men; which ſtrike at the Foundation of our happy Conſtitution, and threaten Deſtruction to the State.

Permit us therefore moſt humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we eſteem our Lives and Fortunes of no farther Value than as they can be of Service to the Support of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, the glorious Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe, and in Defence of our Religion, Liberty, Laws, and Conſtitution.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Greenlaw, this 18th Day of April, 1769, by Ro. Pringle, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heretors of the County of Ross, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable James Stuart Mackenzie, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heretors of the County of Ross, aſſembled aſſembled at Fortroſe on Tueſday the 4th Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine.

STAMPED PAPER HALFPENNY

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heretors, of the County of Roſs, ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, and alarmed at the audacious Attempts which we have of late ſeen made, to poiſon the Minds, and alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects, beg Leave to make this public Profeſſion of thoſe Sentiments of Duty and Attachment which we owe to the beſt of Princes.

When we reflect on the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's Reign over us, and more particularly on thoſe ſignal Inſtances of your Regard for our excellent Conſtitution, whereby your Majeſty has been pleaſed to provide for its farther Improvement, and greater Security, we are equally ſurpriſed and concerned, that any Set of Men ſhould be found among us wicked enough to inſtil into the Minds of ignorant and unwary People, an Apprehenſion, that under the Government of your Majeſty their Liberties are in Danger.

In the Defence of our Liberty, and of that Conſtitution whereof we conſider your Majeſty as the Chief Guardian and Protector, we ſhall ever be ready to ſtand forth; and we conceive, that we can never better teſtify our Zeal for that glorious Cauſe, than by expreſſing our Deteſtation of the ſeditious Practices of thoſe Men, who, while they pretend to ſerve the Cauſe of Liberty, are in Reality the only Enemies from whom at preſent it has any Thing to fear; Men, whoſe Principles, under whatever ſpecious Names they may be diſguiſed, are ſuch as lead them to blaſpheme their God, to inſult their Sovereign, to obſtruct the Execution of the Laws, and to traduce the Miniſters of Juſtice, who, by endeavouring to make the lower Ranks of People diſcontented with the Lot which Providence has aſſigned them, and exciting them to caſt off all Senſe of Order and Subordination, have done what in them lay towards rendering inſecure the Life, Liberty, and Property of every Man, and towards introducing that Anarchy, which can end in nothing but Slavery.

Againſt all ſuch Attempts we do moſt chearfully engage to ſupport your Majeſty to the utmoſt of our Power; and we truſt, that by the Wiſdom and Steadineſs of your Majeſty's Councils, and the unſhaken Fidelity of your Subjects, we ſhall ſoon ſee the pernicious Deſigns of thoſe turbulent and profligate Perſons, who, for their own factious and intereſted End, have ſet on Foot this Deluſion, utterly blaſted; that the Eyes of thoſe, who for a Time may have been impoſed upon, will be ſpeedily opened; that thoſe, who ſhall obſtinately perſevere in diſobeying and reſiſting the Law, will ſuffer by the Law; and that the Effect of this daring but impotent Attempt will be to eſtabliſh more firmly among us all, the fulleſt Conviction, that by ſupporting your Majeſty's Government, we ſhall beſt provide for the ſecure Enjoyment of Liberty, Civil and Religious; and with that for the General Welfare and Proſperity.

By the unanimous Appointment of the Meeting ſigned by Sir Harry Munro of Fowlis, Baronet, their Preſes.

Harry Munro, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Provincial Synod of Glaſgow and Ayr has been preſented to His Majeſty by David Kennedy, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the Shire of Ayr, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provincial Synod of Glaſgow and Ayr.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Moderator, Miniſters, and Elders, of the Provincial Synod of Glaſgow and Ayr, in Synod aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs the deep Senſe we have of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, and to teſtify our Abhorrence of that Spirit of Licentiouſneſs and Riot, which unhappily prevails among ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects.

Our holy Religion requires us to fear God, and honour the King; and we are convinced, that then only we can enjoy true Liberty when we ſtedfaſtly adhere to Religion and to the Laws of our Country.

With Pleaſure we aſſure your Majeſty, that theſe Principles prevail among the different Ranks of People committed to our Charge; and it ſhall ever be our Endeavour to cheriſh them to the utmoſt of our Power.

That the great Sovereign of Heaven and Earth may bleſs and long preſerve your ſacred Majeſty, our moſt gracious Queen, and all the Royal Family; and that, under your Majeſty's paternal Care, the Dignity of Government, and the Bleſſings of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, may ſtand ſecure againſt the Attempts of foreign Enemies, and the wild Efforts of factious and deſigning Men, is and ever ſhall be our moſt ſincere and fervent Prayer.

Signed in Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the Synod at Ayr, this 13th of April, 1769, by David Shaw, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Selkirk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Pringle, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Selkirk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMpreſſed, as we are, with the livelieſt Senſe of the Duty and Loyalty we owe your Majeſty for the full Enjoyment of our Civil and Religious Liberties under your Majeſty's mild and conſtitutional Government, we cannot but lament that ſo many of our Fellow-Subjects ſhould be ſo far miſled by the falſe Pretences of diſappointed, deſperate, and ſeditious Men, as to apprehend their Liberties to be in Danger under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

We hope the Maſk will ſoon be pulled off theſe pretended Patriots, and then your People will clearly ſee and deteſt their Deceivers.

We ſhould be wanting to the Duty we owe to the beſt of Kings, and to our Country, if we did not, on this Occaſion, expreſs to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government; and, at the ſame Time, declare our entire Diſapprobation of every Attempt to diffuſe a Spirit of Riot and Diſobedience to the Laws, and all legal Authority, well knowing Law and Liberty muſt lie interred in the ſame Grave.

In Defence of theſe invaluable Bleſſings, and of your moſt ſacred Perſon, ſo intereſting to every undeluded Briton, we will chearfully ſacrifice every Thing that is dear to us.

Theſe are the Principles which ſhall invariably animate and direct our Conduct.

Will. Scott, Preſes.

The three following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty by George Dempſter, Eſq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Fife, met at Cupar the 12th of April, 1769.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

CONſcious of the Worth and Importance of our happy Conſtitution, Civil and Sacred, eſtabliſhed by Law, and animated with the warmeſt Zeal

Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, under whoſe auſpicious Reign we enjoy the Sweets of unmoleſted Liberty, the moſt valuable of all earthly Bleſſings, we cannot forbear teſtifying our Abhorrence of every Meaſure that has the moſt remote Tendency to affront Majeſty, inſult the Legiſlative Power, or weaken the Authority of a Government, calculated in every Reſpect to make us a free and happy People.——It is with the deepeſt Regret we obſerve, in ſome late Inſtances, even in the Capital of Great-Britain, a Spirit of Tumult and Diſorder raiſed and propagated by deſigning Men, who, under the Pretence of Liberty, countenance Riot and Sedition, ſubverſive of all Peace and Order.———With Pleaſure we can inform your ſacred Majeſty, that the great Body of the People under our Inſpection breathe another Spirit, and, warmly attached to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, do view the preſent licentious Humour with juſt Indignation.——And your Majeſty may believe, that the Miniſters and Elders of this Province have nothing more at Heart than to inſpire our People with the pureſt Sentiments of Religion, and to confirm them in the Principles of Loyalty to the beſt of Kings, and a dutiful Submiſſion to the Laws of our happy Conſtitution, the only Security, under God, of our Civil and Religious Liberties.

That your ſacred Majeſty may long live and reign the Father of your People, the Pattern of Virtue and Religion, the Defender of Liberty and the Conſtitution, and, after a proſperous Reign on Earth, be at laſt, through Jeſus our Saviour, admitted to the Regions of eternal Peace, is the earneſt Wiſh and Prayer of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of this Province.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, by Roger Moodie, Moderator.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Burrow of Cupar in Fife, beg Leave to teſtify to your Majeſty our unſhaken Attachment to your Perſon, Family, and Government; to acknowledge, with grateful Hearts, the Security and Happineſs we enjoy under your mild and legal Government, and the juſt Senſe we have of your fatherly Regard and Care of all your Subjects, even the moſt undeſerving. How happy would our Forefathers have thought themſelves, to have lived under a King, who rules alone by the Laws, and who vies with the moſt zealous of his Subjects in the Love of Liberty, and Deſire of preſerving the Conſtitution upon the moſt liberal Principles of Freedom. With what Abhorrence muſt all Lovers of their Country look upon theſe wicked and evil-deſigning Men, who, for ſelfiſh Ends, blow the Flame of Sedition, and attempt to diſturb a Reign, freight with every Bleſſing neceſſary to make your People happy.—— We hope your Majeſty's ſteady and wiſe Councils will fruſtrate all theſe Deſigns, eſtabliſh the Publick Tranquillity, and ſecure the due Courſe of Juſtice. In ſo far as depends upon us, we will do our utmoſt to cheriſh and promote theſe Sentiments of Loyalty, which prevail in the Hearts of your Subjects of this Burrow; and will never ourſelves be wanting in the Support of your Majeſty's Government, under which alone we conſider our Lives, Properties, and Liberties to be in Safety.

By Appointment of the Council,

John Baxter, Provoſt.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Town-Council, and Burgeſſes, of your Majeſty's Royal Burgh of Dundee.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under the moſt benign and propitious of Governments; and filled with Gratitude for the Preſervation of our Laws and Conſtitution, which have been ſo evidently the particular Care of your juſt and mild Adminiſtration, do humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt ſincere and moſt reſpectful Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family.

It is with Abhorrence we obſerve the ſacred Name of Liberty proſtituted, by ſome of our Fellow-Subjects, to the baſeſt of Purpoſes, to excite a Spirit of lawleſs Riot and Licentiouſneſs: Theſe Proceedings, which are daring Inſults to your Royal Perſon, and threaten the Subverſion of our envied Conſtitution, we reſpectfully beg Leave to expreſs our Deteſtation of; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is our invariable Reſolution ever to behave ourſelves as loyal Subjects to ſo gracious a King; and, as much as in our Power, to advance the Quiet and Honour of your Reign; and to ſupport the Intereſt of your illuſtrious Family.

Signed by Appointment of the Town Council,

George Maxwell, Provoſt.

The two following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty by Mr. Dixon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies, Dean of Guild, and Council of the Borough of Peebles, in Council aſſembled, on Monday the 10th Day of April, 1769.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

ANimated by a Senſe of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, we ſee and feel, with the utmoſt Concern and Abhorrence, the moſt daring Attempts of Licentiouſneſs carried on at the Gates of your Palace by the deluded Multitude, Tools of factious and deſigning Men, who have proſtituted the ſacred Name of Liberty to their baſe and ſeditious Purpoſes.

Permit us, Sire, as a Teſtimony of our Duty and ſteady Attachment to your Royal Perſon, to aſſure you, that we will, by every Exertion in our Power, ſupport the Dignity and Honor of your Reign, preſerve Publick Tranquillity and the Stability of Government.

Signed in Preſence and by Appointment of the Council, with the Seal of the Borough appended, Francis Ruſſell, Provoſt.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Common-Council, and Community of the Burgh of Lanark, aſſembled in their Council Hall on the 18th Day of April, 1769.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Common-Council, and Community of the Burgh of Lanark, truly ſenſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Adminiſtration, beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the riotous and licentious Behaviour, which has of late appeared among ſome of your Majeſty's deluded Subjects.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever retain the moſt cordial Affection and zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family, and Government; that it is our fixed Reſolution to oppoſe every Thing that may tend to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Reign; and to promote, as far as in us lies, the Glory and Happineſs of the beſt of Kings.

Signed by Appointment,

Rob. Bell, Provoſt.

Florence, April 15. Before the Great Duke left Rome, the Cardinals in a Body ſent him a Preſent, conſiſting of a Piece of the Holy Croſs, richly adorned with Figures and Inſtruments of the Crucifixion, in Gold, weighing Sixteen Pounds; Four Caſes, with the Prints of the Churches and principal
